THEATRE.—REAPPEARANCE OF THE POPULAR AND FAVORITE ACTRESS AND DANSEUSE, JENNIE HIGHT.—THE SUPERB DRAMA OF THE DUMB GIRL OF GENOA—BY JENNIE HIGHT—SONG BY M. J. HAMILTON.—FAIRCE OF THE LOTTERY TICKET.—The Theatre will be reopened to-night with a very attractive bill, with a popular company, everybody's favorite, the charming and accomplished Jennie Hight. The opening piece is the fine melo-drama of the Dumb Girl of Genoa, with Miss Jennifer's Juliette. There will be a song by Claude Hamilton, and a song and dance by Jennie Hight. The performance will conclude with a repetition, by very general request, of the remaining farce of the Lottery Ticket, with Mr. Dawson in his inimitable part of Wornwood. As we have had no theatrical entertainments for a long time, we have no doubt that the announcement of these pieces of the Louisville Theater for a night or two each week, will be held with satisfaction by all lovers of the drama. The play, the Dumb Girl of Genoa, will be repeated to-morrow, and will be again on the stage to-morrow evening, and will be renewed in the most satisfactory manner. There's but one opinion in regard to Miss Jennie's dancing, and the Lottery Ticket is the most amiable and bountiful of farces, therefore, we can pretty safely predict a good house at the Theatre. We see by the advertisement that the prices have been reduced from the old standard—the boxes now, fifty cents, and the second tier twenty-five cents, an indulgent change in view of the condition of the times.

LYON AND LIVINGSTON COUNTIES.—At a Convention of the Southern Rights party, of Lyon and Livingston counties, held at Ross' Ferry, on the 13th Inst., Geo. R. Merritt, Esq., was nominated as a candidate to represent those counties in the Legislature. Mr. Merritt is an able and fearless advocate of Southern Rights, and will do well to bear our standard successfully through the canvass.

SCARCITY OF COTTON IN THE NORTH.—A recent letter from one of the largest manufacturers in the East gives the stock of cotton in New York, Philadelphia, and Baltimore, all told, at about 9,000 bales while the stock in Louisville, Cincinnati, and Pittsburg is nearly exhausted. The same letter states that the best informed Eastern merchants are of opinion that twenty-five days cotton will be worth twenty cents a pound.

SILVER LOST.—In passing out the specie from board on the North Star, at New York, two boxes were lost, containing $3,000. The proper number of boxes and the tallyman at the specie locker, the only of the men on the dock was ashore.

ANOTHER TERRIBLE EFFECT.—One effect of the blockade, the New Orleans Delta says, is that "men for one dollar a barrel cheaper than it had been for ten years."—B. S. B. the quality is the new and superior article, brought from the illustrious goods of Texas.

ANOTHER ABSOLUTION FEAT.—The Philadelphia Enquirer, a Troy sheet, says the portrait of Ex-President Tyler has been accepted by the Superintendent of Indian Affairs at Washington Territory. This appointment has been long contested, and now happily the pressure has been brought to a close.

SUICIDE.—A young man named Butler, living on Little Kentucky, shot himself through the head Tuesday, near the barbershop at Campbellsville. Love and an Amazon her equestria skill. He was almost a Boen with her rifle, and an Amazon her equestria skill. We have heard of no such case before.

LINCOLN SPIES ON THE COVINGTON AND LEXINGTON RAILROAD.—Under instructions from the Lincolnites in Cincinnati, a system of search and seizure has been established on the Covington and Lexington, Ky., Railroad. A fellow of the name of Caughell, a porter in a store in Covington, has been appointed Deputy Lincoln Spy, to break open trucks and ransack passengers' baggage to search for contraband. At Covington, yesterday, he searched the luggage of a German pedler, hunting for quinine, and at Cincinnati, some four miles away, on the train, he opened the trunk of a traveler who joined the train at that point, and on breaking it open found a quantity of quinine and a few packages of opium among its contents. The man, trunk, and all, were captured and taken back to Covington and Cincinnati, of course, from B. A. C.

We know nothing further than that the above, but do know, unless the articles were stolen and the man was an officer with a warrant, that this seizure was an outrage that no Kentuckian should submit to.

Secret Movements of Warlike Stores.

It appears that masked batteries of all sorts and kinds, are being sprung on the South as well as the North, on true lines as well as false. One section is watching the other, and all kinds of night work is being carried on. It was rumored yesterday that a special midnight train went down to Lexington from Covington, Wednesday night, from Covington, and it is suspected that said train was hurried with warlike stores, such as powder, ball, gun caps, &c. On its arrival in Lexington, it was transferred to four wagons which had been sent to wait, and at daylight they were gone. Some surmised that their destination was East Tennessee, and others said they were for Nashville. Who knows?

CITY COUNCIL.—Both Boards of the City Council were in session last night.

An ordinance was introduced into the Common Council to raise $10,000 for the relief of the mechanics of Louisville. It was referred to a Special Committee, consisting of Messrs. Armstrong, Baxter and Galt.

The ordinance passed some time since by the lower board was returned tonight by the Aldermen, with an amendment, which provides for authorizing 1,500 Home Guard, at an expense not to exceed $5,000. This passed the board of Aldermen, with only two dissenting voices, Messrs. Trubee and Jefferson. The ordinance so amended was then taken up by the lower board, and passed by a vote of 12 to 4—Messrs. Wellman, Duckwall, Dunphy and Wood.

The Council then adjourned to meet again on Monday, the 22d.

STABLING.—On Wednesday evening about eight o'clock a difficulty occurred at Camp Noble, near New Albany, between Wilson Gailey and Geo. Crumbo, in which the latter was killed. The facts, as near as could be learned, are as follows: Wednesday Crumbo went to New Albany and became intoxicated, and while returning to camp severely beat a comrade of Gailey's without any provocation whatever. Gailey met Crumbo and asked him what he whipped his friend for, and was answered in an unsatisfactory and insulting manner, and at the same time Crumbo caught Gailey by the collar. The latter drew a dagger (the blade of which was about seven inches in length and double edged) and plunged it into Crumbo's left side, between the fifth and sixth ribs.

Candidate for Senator.

JEFF. BROWN, Esq., was nominated last night by the Southern Rights men of the 35th Senatorial District as a candidate to represent them in the next Legislature.

Mr. Brown is a good man, a true, an able man, and we sincerely hope the District may soon find his services in the next Legislature.

A FAILURE.—The meeting called at the Merchants' Exchange in New York, on Friday afternoon, to send "aid and comfort" to the Union men of Western Virginia, was a failure. It is stated that not more than half dozen persons were present, including sundry reporters. There was no organization, and, of course, no money collected.

GEN. McDOWELL'S ARMY OF INVASION.

The grand Federal army, under Gen. McDowell, that has made a forward movement into Virginia, consists of forty-five regiments of infantry, two companies of cavalry, and seven companies of artillery, light batteries. Their sums up about 45,000 men.

TARGET SHOOTING.—The Union Guards go on a target shooting match this evening at 8 o'clock. They are to shoot for a massive piece of silver, presented to them by Col. T. H. Hunt. It is requested that every member be at the armory punctually at 7½ o'clock.

SLAVE SHIPS.—A correspondent of the New York Journal of Commerce, writing from the coast of Africa under date of May 27th, states that the Storm King, Alexandria, Fairy, John Bell, and Martha Coast had all cleared the Congo with slaves.

CAPTURED SLAVER.—The slaver captured off the coast of Africa with 486 slaves on board, last May, by the British ship Warrigal, was the Ardenus.

THE SIX hundred and eighty-four miles have passed through Cincinnati in the past ten days for the army in the East.

HARPER'S WEEKLY.—INDEBENTHART SHEET.—The proprietors of Harper's Weekly, in their first for many, however, carefully prepared the sheet, and published inferior pictures of a "slave auction" and other scenes, which were all false. The following from the New York Evening Day Book of the 16th furnishes 32 subjects for Harper's pen. Will they copy any of these, or stand related?

Thus, if Harper's Weekly got any picture from British slave houses, some taken from the British press, and some from British and American weekly papers, it would be in the vicinity last week, and would have been known to the proprietors before they had published them.

The wife of Gen. Beauregard, who relatives residing in Marion County, Indiana, was in that vicinity last week, and remained there until Saturday evening, when she made known her desire to make the acquaintance of a number of prominent citizens of that county.

Gen. Beauregard, and the General-in-Chief of the army of Mississippi, has been received at the headquarters of the army of Kentucky, and is now in Louisville.
